WASABI TUNA

Short Synopsis:

The story of five friends in Los Angeles whose annual tradition of joining the zany West Hollywood Halloween Parade in outrageous-themed costumes has become local legend. However, this year, as they prepare their costumes, all goes wrong. A single case of mistaken identity turns their gentle lifestyle and harmless pre-party atmosphere into a diabolical world of vengeful gang-bangers, surveillance teams, police chases, shootouts, drug-lords, a team of Anna Nicole Smith drag queens, Anna Nicole Smith and yes her dog, "Sugar Pie."

WASABI TUNA SYNOPSIS:

It's the night before Halloween and everyone in L.A. is trying to finish their costumes for the annual West Hollywood Parade! Fredrico, a hot young Latino spinning instructor; Dave, a successful African-American stockbroker; Evan, a stylish young interior designer; Harvey, Evan's equally fabulous business partner and boyfriend; and Emme, a quirky young woman obsessed with style and vintage movies, have been waiting all year for this day to come. They are now faced with a dilemma, what to be for Halloween?

Their original plan to dress up as pieces of Wasabi Tuna sushi won't work, so Emme has the perfect solution. Something fresh and edgy, to dress up as East L.A. gangbangers. The original Zoot suits. But in order to achieve that authentic look, they seek out the professionals. Dave hooks them up with Romeo, a real life gangster who agrees to help them out, even loaning them his purple low rider. In the meantime, Evan and Harvey must attend to one of their most valued clients, a shady woman named Mrs. Hasadan. She instructs them to take a vase to Chinatown, meanwhile Mrs. Hasadan's dog Sugar Pie escapes into their car. So the gang dresses up in their gangster attire and head for Chinatown in the purple low rider. However, no one realizes that they're being followed by real gangsters who want to steal their ride, by undercover cops tracking the vase Mrs. Hasadan gave them and the "Santa Ana Annas", a group of Anna Nicole Smith obsessed drag queens who think Harvey stole the real Sugar Pie!

Everything culminates in Chinatown as the group runs into Anna Nicole Smith at the Chinatown restaurant. But not before the group battles real life gangsters, a trio of female Ninja Assassins, two undercover detectives and the Santa Ana Anna's!! A brawl erupts and everyone battles in a huge street brawl of flying fists, feet and wigs!! Anna Nicole Smith saves the day when she clears up the Sugar Pie mess, hands the vase full of drugs over to the police and invites the gang to her Halloween party!!

Where they dress as Wasabi Tuna!
