{ SYNOPSIS }

Introducing Dead by Midnight: Y2Kill, a horror anthology that's carving out a new brand of terror with original storytelling and iconic horror stars!

Y2Kill has assembled a team of horror legends including Kane Hodder, Bill Moseley, and Scream Queen Linnea Quigley. They join an all-star cast for five terrifying short films and a series of devilish digital ads, each more deadly than the last.

All of this murderous mayhem is hosted by the Temptress of Terror (Hannah Fierman). But she better watch out, because the vengeful Mistress of Midnight (Erin Brown) is out to prove that she's still the most hellish host around.
