Tagline:

The heart is a strong and mysterious muscle...it wants what it wants and happiness depends on feeding its demanding desire.

Synopsis short ( 3 to 6 sentences )

The incredible true story of an odd Jewish couple, Yale Schwartz 23 fresh out of college and Nina Lemisch a 37 year old widow with 5 children who fought against the social norms of the late 1960's in order to find true happiness.

Synopsis long ( 6- 12 sentences )

This extraordinary and heartfelt story begins in the late 1960's when two attractive, star-crossed lovers meet in an ordinary suburban neighborhood. The problem lies in the fact that Yale is 23 and fresh out of college while Nina is 37 and widowed with 5 children. Needless to say, Yale's parents aren't thrilled about the budding relationship and have their own opinions about what he should do with his future... family drama ensues! Despite their different places in life, Nina and Yale fall into an on-again-off-again relationship that is continually bound by their passion for one another. This is a true love story of an odd couple who went against the social norms of their times to prove that love is truly in the eye of the beholder.
